An impolite person is one who talks all the time while you are trying to interrupt.

Cathy Burkett
Academic
How it improves people for us when you begin to love them.

Pamela Bowser Gibbner
Commercial
Those who love deeply never grow old, they may die of old age, but they die young.

Steven Dawson Academic
Card games can be expensive, but so can any game
where you hold hands.

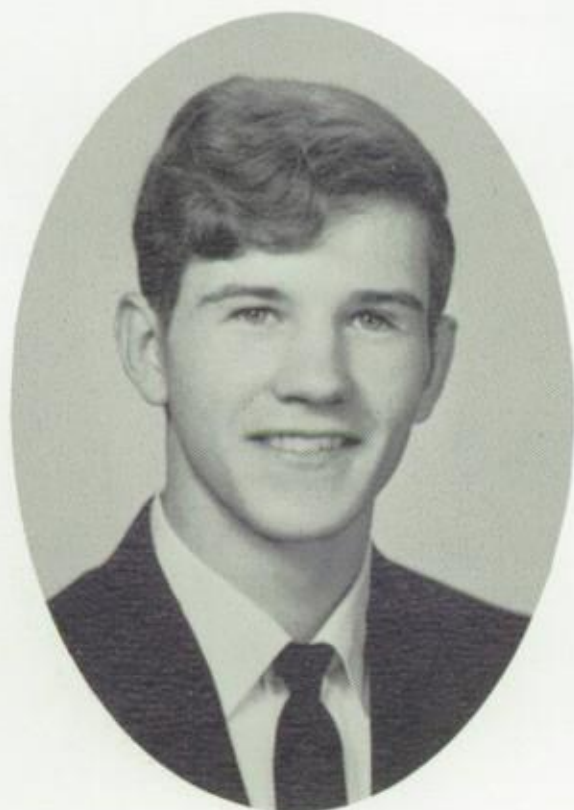

Judith Burkett
Commercial

without an eraser.

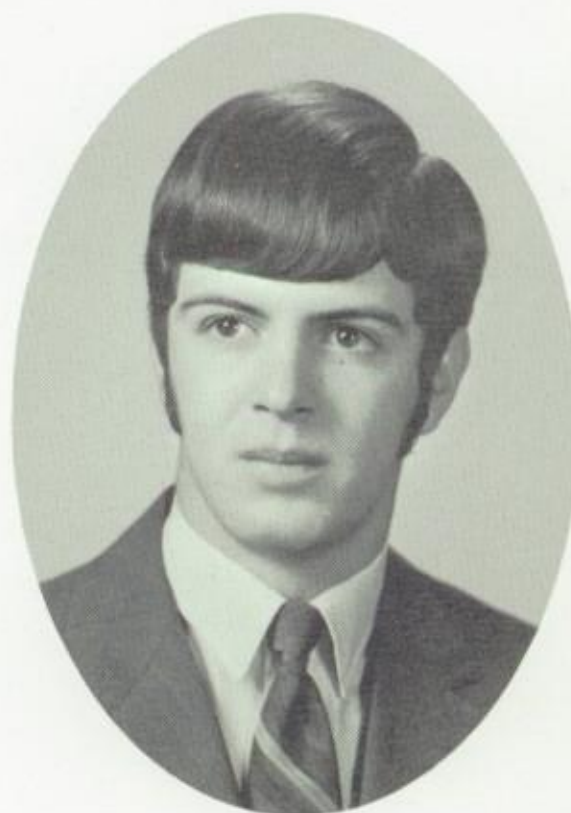

Richard Dennison
General
The best place to find a helping hand is at the end of your arm.

John Emerick
Academic
I'm going to say my prayers.
Anyone want anything?

Barbara Diehl
Commercial
A modest girl never pursues
a man; nor does a mousetrap pursue a mouse.

Susan P. Emerick
Commercial
It is tact that is golden, not silence.

Susan E. Emerick
Commercial

Yvonne Kreigline
Commercial
You can't just go on being a good egg. You must either hatch or go bad.

Janet Lafferty
Commercial Kids have it tough. Where stand and shiver waiting for the bus.

John Leap Academic
The Only reason some people

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, The Senior Class of 1971, being fully aware of the dangers and pitfalls encountered by members of an incoming Senior Class do willfully invoke this Last Will and Testament. All other testimonies or documents are now rendered void.

First -- to each parent we give our songs of lasting appreciation and gratefulness for providing us a chance of education.

Second -- to the faculty we bequeath our thanks for the seeds of knowledge they have instilled in us.

Third -- to the Senior Class of 1972 we pass on these things designated below:

TERRY JORDAN relinquishes his janitorial duties to Glenn Miller asking only that he look after Troy and Red. SHARON PICK leaves behind her outgoing ways to Betty Leydig. JANET SHAFFER and DAVIDA THOMPSON bestow their bold and hilarious actions to Beverly Shaffer and Gladys Monnett hoping they will keep the halls ringing with laughter. JOHN KIRKPATRICK leaves his clean language to Dave Diehl and Allen Moore knowing they could use a lesson. HERBERT SCHAD bequeathes his ability to come out handsome all the time to James Portmess. JOHN EMERICK wills the keys to his Corvair to Cliff Jenkins hoping the car holds together. SUSAN P. EMERICK leaves her small stature to Karen Clites reminding her that some good things come in small packages. JUDY BURKETT leaves Glenna Lafferty her nutty and pleasant sense of humor. CHARLES WISE wills Garp Leap his curly hair and nice legs hoping his legs never bow. BARBARA LEYDIG leaves Geri Stoner her ability to get along with the teachers and students. YVONNE KREIGLINE bestows her nice disposition and jokes to Diane Williams. MAXINE MILLER quietly leaves her mysterious ways to Diane Welsh. RICK DENNISON bestows his good build and grappling ability to Bill Dietz. JOHN LEAP and JOHN SATZER bestow their sense of responsibility and corny jokes to Carl Holler hoping he will put them to his advantage. VICKI HOLLER SMITH bestows her long beautiful hair to Bobbi Rose hoping she never gets it cut. LARRY WEAVERLING turns in his wrestling gear to Howard Shaffer in hopes that he can find the proper place in the equipment room to store it. JANET LAFFERTY leaves her attraction to the opposite sex to Connie Deneen and Lana Shaffer hoping they have the attraction returned. BARBARA McCOY relinquishes her even proportions to Betty Shoemaker telling her nothing of her secrets. BRADLEY ROSE gives Roger Smith his ability to get out-of-town girlfriends believing firmly that he never goes with another Hyndman girl. ROBERT RITCHEY bestows his stories of big game hunts to Randy Willison telling him another big story. LARRY LOGUE leaves nothing because he needs it all himself. BARBARA DIEHL bequeathes her flirtatious ways to Beverly Harbert in hopes she becomes an old maid. MIKE LOGSDON bestows his athletic abilities to Paul Sisk in hopes that he will better them. RICHARD MOORE hands his dictionary, encyclopedias, and study habits to Derrick Lloyd telling him to keep up the good work. CATHY BURKETT bestows her position in the wrestling cheer-leading squad to Kathy Sturtz telling her to cheer the wrestlers on. JANET GILMOUR leaves Luann Elliott a handful of excuses for getting out of gym class telling her to find better ways to get out of it. GAIL EVANS bestows her charm and personality to Sherry Bryant telling her that this is the key to success. Playboy LYNN PENSYL presents his philandering ways to Everett Coleman hoping that he will keep the girls hanging on. CATHY MILLER leaves her sewing machine to Donna Pick and Susan Smith in hopes that they will become fashion designers someday. SUSAN E. EMERICK leaves her shyness to Karen Reed hoping she won't be too shy to accept it.

In testimony thereof, we subscribe our seal to this document, the seventh day of January, nineteen-hundred and seventy-one.

See what you get when you use Imperial Margarine !

Three blind mice . . .

I must be lost. Is this Hyndman High ?

One picture can tell a thousand tales.

The King prepares to take his throne.

Where did all these people come from?

Geishas were never like this.

Wow! What a party.

Smile!

I'd like you to meet a friend.

I don't bite!

Bring on the side show.

Don't take my picture.

Gee, I'm tired!
